Database Applications - Verification

1.0   General Information

1.1   Application Description

a)   Name of program - verify

The nationally supported verification program, verify, which currently runs on the AWIPS machines will be ported over to run on the RFC Archive Database machine and use the archive database for the data to generate the statistics. The timetable for this transition is uncertain at this time (Feb. 2003).